School teachers and others desiring to go into quarantine preparatory to taking passage for the other islands are requested to meet at the office of the Inspector General of Schools at 10 a. m. today.

The Oceanic Steamship Company states that if the news of the plague reaches San Francisco before the Mariposa leaves that steamer will most likely refuse passengers and freight and bring only mail for Honolulu.

There will be a meeting of the St. Andrew's Priory Aid Society Saturday, January 6, at 10 a. m. All members are urged to be present to elect officers for the ensuing year and those members who cannot be present will kindly send their dues.

The identity of the Chinaman who was found Tuesday evening in a pond in the rear of the old Chinese theater and not far from the Oahu railroad, is still unknown. It was formally announced yesterday by the authorities that the Chinaman's death was caused by drowning.

Jack Lucas was thrown from his buggy yesterday morning near the Mehten premises by a wheel coming off and received a severe shaking up besides several cuts and scratches about the face. The horse in his fright ran among trees and freed himself from the buggy.

Bids were opened yesterday at the Interior Department for furnishing 1,200 tons of coal to the Honolulu waterworks as required. The I. I. S. N. Co. bid $11.75 per ton for Greta coal; Allen & Robinson, $9.20 per ton; Wilder & Co., $9 per ton. The contract was awarded to Wilder & Co.

The local board of underwriters was called together yesterday afternoon in the office of F. A. Schaefer for the purpose of discussing the burning of buildings in Chinatown, but no action was taken. After brief discussion of the matter, the meeting adjourned. No time was fixed for the next meeting.

The Rapid Transit & Land Co. began suit this morning against the Tramways Company to restrain them from laying a second track. Judge Stanley issued an order citing the Tramways Company to appear and show cause, at 9:30 o'clock this morning, why an injunction should not issue stopping the work.

Twenty-two boys, ranging in age from 6 to 12 years, were rounded up by an officer on Fort street yesterday afternoon and taken to the police station. They were accused of making too much noise in a hallway. After being lectured by Deputy Marshal Chillingworth the little fellows were allowed to go.

The case of the Republic vs. Jacinto Banavita, charged with manslaughter in the first degree in having caused the death of young Joe Burgess, did not come up in Police Court yesterday as expected. It was continued until today, and Attorney A. G. M. Robertson was appointed to assist in prosecuting the case.

Captain Hackett of San Francisco was the host of a party that visited Waiaina yesterday, the members being Mrs. Sawyer and daughter, Miss Anna Sawyer of San Francisco, Miss Blanche Blanchard and Mrs. Henry Ford of San Jose, Cal., and Messrs. Trimble and Crisby, who are enroute from the Coast to the far East.

A man named Shamoha was fined $10 yesterday in Police Court for alleged cruelty to animals. He was driving a horse upon the back of which was a bad sore at least three inches in diameter, over which the man had placed brown paper and a heavy pad. It was one of the most flagrant cases of cruelty to animals, according to the police, that has come under their notice recently.

Tried to Escape.

Early yesterday morning a Japanese named Tanegawa was arrested in making an attempt to pass the quarantine line at Kukui and River streets. An effort was made to bribe Guard Kalama, who took the $3 offered and then started to make the arrest. The Japanese tried to run. Guard Pedra came to Kalama's assistance, but was thrown down by the Japs. Pedra then fired off his gun which frightened the Japanese who again attempted to run. One of the Japs, who was held by Kalama, tried to slash him with a knife and nearly succeeded. Other guards arriving under Corporal Mitchell, Tanegawa and the three women with him were arrested. The women were taken to military headquarters where their addresses were taken and they were released. Tanegawa was found to be wounded in the neck, probably by a bayonet during the scuffle. An extra guard was at once sent to the place.

Sub-Quarantine Department.

The Board of Health has established a sub-quarantine department for placing guards around the premises where suspect cases of plague are located, where they will remain until the diagnosis is completed by the physicians of the Board. Mr. Armstrong Smith was placed in charge of the new department yesterday morning, but last night he announced that he could not possibly attend to the work and Mr. Sam Johnson, chief inspector, was appointed in his place. Mr. Johnson entered upon his new duties last night and will be on hand with his guards as soon as new cases are reported.
